Sen. Smith Asks Substitute for Censure Action

McCarthy Attacks Proposal for Bipartisan Study

WASHINGTON (U-P)—Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-N.J.) told the Senate today that instead of condemning Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Vt.) it should name a bipartisan committee to study a "statesmanlike" way of dealing with Communists.

Smith is trying to act as peace-maker in the storm raging around a censure resolution presented by Sen. Ralph E. Flanders (R-Vt.) against McCarthy. He offered a substitute to Flanders' resolution but did not immediately call it up for consideration.

Smith originally said his resolution would propose a bipartisan group headed by Vice President Richard M. Nixon to investigate "so-called McCarthyism."

But in offering it to the Senate today, he took out that phrase and said instead that the Senate should seek a "judicial, statesmanlike manner" of uncovering Communist and security risks.

He called on McCarthy to suspend temporarily his own investigations and use his "brilliant skills" in cooperation with President Eisenhower's fight against subversion.

McCarthy Defends Self
Smith's plea that McCarthy join in what he called a "team" effort to devise a plan for dealing with the Communist threat brought McCarthy to his feet. He said Smith's statement asking that he "play ball" seemed to imply—perhaps unintentionally—that President Eisenhower would like to see his investigations stopped.

"If by playing ball he (Smith) means quitting the investigation of Communism, graft or corruption—that kind of ball I will never play," McCarthy said.

McCarthy said it would be a "great disservice" to President Eisenhower to indicate that the President would want investigating committees to stop their work.

Recalling the President's campaign pledge to "clean house," McCarthy said he has never been—and will never be—a party to an agreement "to desist in exposing wrong-doing."

Smith: Joe Wrong
Smith said he felt McCarthy was wrong in defying the administration's security rules in the Army-McCarthy hearings this spring. After the hearings, he said, he urged McCarthy to work with the President by announcing that he was temporarily suspending the work of his Senate investigating subcommittee and allowing the Justice Department's new anti-subversive division to take over the Red-hunting business.

He said this would "heal the wounds all over the country" between those who thought McCarthy was being persecuted and those who thought he had defied the administration and should be punished.

Smith tossed in his substitute soon after Flanders told reporters he was considering revising his own resolution to name specific reasons for condemning McCarthy's conduct.

There was an increasingly strong move in the Senate to sidetrack Flanders' resolution.

Dutch Couple, 11 Children Fly to U.S.

NEW YORK (U-P)—A Dutch couple and their 11 children set an air travel record today when they flew from New York to Minneapolis to settle in the Midwest.

Otto Boersma, 47, and his wife, Marianne, and 11 children make up the largest family that has ever flown together in one airplane.

Boersma, an automotive parts specialist with his family aboard the liner SS Grotebeer Thursday and spent two days sightseeing in New York before their Northwest Airlines flight to the Midwest.

Boersma decided to move to America when business visits convinced him that his children, ranging in age from 18 years to 23 months, would have greater opportunities and more freedom here.

78 Girls in 4-H Dress Revue; Miss Arlene Cook Named Queen Candidate

Seventy-eight Saline County 4-H club girls participated in the annual 4-H dress revue, held at the Harrisburg Junior high school Friday evening.

In addition to the dress revue Saline county's candidate for the "Queen of the Furrow" contest was selected. Miss Arlene Cook of Galatia was the winner.

After all girls had modeled their garments, approximately twenty were called back and introduced as blue ribbon winners. From this group were selected Saline county's representatives to go to the State Fair.

Saline county is entitled to send two garments for construction and the girls whose garments were selected were Barbara Alvey and Delores Wallace.

Eight girls will represent the county in activities at the State Fair and three will model in the dress revue. Selected to model were Kay Taylor, Yvonne Stubbe and Mae Nell Mears. Others to go to the fair in Springfield are Treva Kay Humphrey, Janie Davis, Frances Brown, Carolyn Wasson and Charlotte O'Keefe.

The "Queen of the Furrow" contest is being sponsored by the Saline County Soil Conservation District and the local winner will participate in the council contest to be held in Gallatin county at a later date. Winners from Hamilton, White, Gallatin, Hardin, Pope, Johnson, Massac and Saline counties will be in the council.

From fifteen council winners the state queen will be selected and she will preside at the Furrowmen's Banquet to be held during the National Plowing contests to be staged at Olney Sept. 16, 17 and 18.

Miss Cook was selected Saline County Queen from a field of eight. Judges were Miss Mary Ann McCue of Equality, Gallatin county Home Adviser, and Mrs. L. B. Kimmel, wife of the Saline county

(Note — This information is based on scouting earlier in the week and does not reflect subsequent developments.)

There are 27 operations in Saline this week, with one dry hole, five completed oil wells and five first reports.

Just northwest of Harrisburg, Jim Dean, Jake Hollowell and Southern Development Company have casing set and are awaiting cable tools to test their No. 1 Oscar Taylor, 89-66. They have oil saturation in the following zones: The Cypress sand 2362-81, Paint Creek sand 2454-72, Benoist sand 2502-20 and Aux Vases sand 2616-24. Total depth is 2643 through the O'Hara lime. A fracture treatment on any one of these formations might mean the beginning of a new oil field in Saline county and the first in the Harrisburg area. Testing should begin in a very few days.

Three miles straight east of Eldorado, Miami Operating has staked three more locations on the Stanley Edmister farm in 13-8-7e, after completing the No. 1 well for an initial production of 33 barrels of oil a day from the Cypress sand 2502-24 after fracturing. They have very good Tar Springs saturation 2166-94 behind the casing which will probably be produced from a twin well. The No. 2, 3, and 4 Edmister are all still locations awaiting rotary tools.

Test Plugged, Abandoned
Ashland Oil and Refining has plugged and abandoned their No. 1 Patton-Mathias Unit, SE NE SE, 14-8-7e, after drilling to a total depth of 3061 through the McClosky limestone. A drill stem test of the Aux Vases lime recovered 30 feet of gas, 30 feet of light salty oil mixed mud with 10 feet of salt water, and a test on the McClosky lime got 20 feet of salty mud and 90 feet of salt water.

Two miles east of Eldorado, G. L. Reaser has completed his No. 2 E. C. Scott, 23-8-7e, pumping 28 barrels of oil a day after fracturing the Cypress 2526-55 and is in the process of completing his No. 1.

Paratrooper Whirls Over Niagara Rapids in Barrel

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont. (U-P)—Maj. Lloyd Hill, a 35-year-old paratrooper, turned daredevil Niagara river rapids in a barrel, said today he was determined to risk his life going over the famous falls themselves.

Hill, the most daring member of a family notorious for daring feats around the falls, was whirled around the deadly lower rapids whirlpool for three hours Friday before he was swept into calm waters and pulled to safety.

All that time he had been playing hide-and-seek with police, who finally brought him ashore "for his own good."

Provincial police considered charging him with violating an Ontario Parks Commission bylaw prohibiting entrance into government waters of any boat without a license, but they released him after questioning.

Hill was still jaunty after his ordeal and apparently untroubled by the nerve-racking spin in the whirlpool.

SALINE COUNTY OIL REPORT: 27 Oil Operations In Saline County

By BOB SKEELS

George Shaver et al, same section in the Rosiclare lime 2975-79 and 2984-97 after fracturing. His No. 1 Melton in the same area, is still a location.

Also in 23-8-7e, Walter Duncan and Calvert Drilling have set casing and are cleaning out after fracturing through perforations in the Aux Vases lime 2873-2901 on their No. 1 Adams-Simpson. It swabbed oil at the rate of two barrels per hour natural and 14 barrels per hour right after fracturing. It made 121 barrels of new oil the first 20 hours after treatment.

Byron Rucker and Bud Rue have completed their No. 1 Slow Heirs, 17-8-7e, just west of Eldorado, for 25 barrels of oil per day from the Aux Vases 2912-28 and their No. 1 J. Bootin Heirs, same area, in the Tar Springs sand 2263-71 for 45 barrels per day after fracturing opposite the saturation. Their No. 1 Watson and Hardy community is still a location.

John Stelle and Associates have started a new test just west of Eldorado, their first on the Bartok lease in 20-8-7e, one location northeast of the discovery well, the No. 1 John J. Jones. Rucker Drilling of Mt. Vernon is the contractor and was digging today below 1100 feet. Bill Hisey, also of Mt. Vernon is still a location.

Outstanding Cattle Exhibits Will Be at Fair

Many Tents Already Up for Annual Event; Carnival Due Tomorrow

Some of the tents already were up yesterday at the Saline county fairgrounds for the 48th annual fair next week and it was learned that there definitely will be more beef and dairy cattle on exhibit this year than ever before in the history of the exposition.

One outstanding herd will be brought here by C. L. McHatten of Baldwin, Ill., who is one of the outstanding Polled Hereford breeders in the country. Mr. McHatten is director of the national Polled Hereford association and his herd of 16 beef cattle will be shown in the first cattle barn.

After showing his herd here, Mr. McHatten will take them to the Illinois State Fair at Springfield.

Teen Town Tent
Tents up yesterday included one for the Egyptian Health Association exhibit, the Teen Town tent and additional tents for the stock to be shown.

The Teen Town tent will have a juke box for dancing and on one night of the fair there will be an orchestra for the young people. Ground has been staked off for an implement exhibit to be staged by five farm implement dealers.

The new modern rest rooms are an asset to the fairgrounds this year. They are equipped with castile soap and paper towels and an attendant will be on hand in each room.

The carnival is due in town for showing tomorrow and the fair proper will begin at 7:30 p. m. Monday with Jack Kochman's Hell Drivers, who are world champion automobile stunt drivers in action. The atomic crisscrosser leap is the feature of 28 events that will be shown. In this climax, a speeding open car will run up a rampway into space and sail directly over another car passing underneath. It will land upon a receiving ramp 120 feet away.

Kids Day Tuesday
There will be horse racing, horse show events and southern Illinois talent Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights with the live stock parade added to the Thursday night events, when the champion horse show classes will be held. Thursday afternoon there will be racing, stage entertainment and a machinery parade.

Tuesday will be Kids Day and the 4-H judging will be held that morning. On Tuesday and Friday children can secure rides on the carnival devices for nine cents up to 5 p. m.

The all-star Talent Revue will be held Friday night and on Saturday night the fair will end with the annual Saline County Beauty contest and Automobile show.

A&W Root Beer Stand Burglarized

The A & W Root Beer stand on Route 34 just north of the city limits was burglarized during the night. Burglars opened a window and jimmied open the coin container of a juke box and a basketball game device, taking around $35 from them and 18 cartons of cigarettes. Deputy Sheriff Isham Threlst and Chief of Police Loren Threlst investigated the crime.

Declare Water Shortage Emergency In Two More Towns

SPRINGFIELD (U-P)—Highland and Kincaid today were added to a growing list of Illinois towns suffering water shortage emergencies.

Gov. William G. Stratton's office announced Friday he had declared emergencies in the two towns and was asking the federal Civil Defense Administration to lend them pipe.

Kincaid wants three miles of pipe so it can get water from the waterworks system at Taylorville. Highland says it needs 500 feet of pipe to reach Silver Creek.

Sparta, Olney, Benton, Lovington and Mount Sterling previously have obtained pipe on loan from the Civil Defense Administration to pump in extra water and relieve shortages.

Paris has a request that it be declared in a state of emergency under investigation by state engineers. William W. Downey, aide to Stratton, said Friday he hoped that report by late Friday but later reported it had been delayed until Monday.

British Halt Ship With Unwilling Polish Refugee

LONDON (U-P)—British police today halted and boarded the Polish merchant ship, Jaroslaw Dabrowski, in the Thames River as it attempted to leave Britain with an unwilling Polish refugee.

Also aboard the ship were a Boston doctor and his wife, en route to Poland to seek "political asylum" in the Communist country.

But British authorities emphasized they were interested only in the Pole, Antony Klimowicz. He was prevented by officers of the Red ship from escaping to freedom in Britain.

The Americans, Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Cort, were willing passengers on the trip behind the Iron Curtain.

Klimowicz definitely was not. He fought to get ashore in Britain but was stopped.

Britain's action in halting the vessel to look into his case brought an early morning call at the British Foreign Office from the Polish ambassador — presumably to protest.

Klimowicz, a stowaway, attempted to escape by swinging out on a ship's crane but the operator saw him and brought him back aboard.

Protest By Refugees

Polish refugees who had gone to the docks to meet the ship protested to British officials that Klimowicz was being detained aboard the Jaroslaw Dabrowski against his will.

Officials ruled nothing could be done in Klimowicz's case because he never actually touched British soil.

While Klimowicz was an unwilling passenger, the Cort's apparently were heading for a new life behind the Iron Curtain by their own choice.

The British had ordered the Cort's to get out of the country before midnight after refusing them political refuge. Cort is wanted in the United States on draft-dodging charges.

Cort sought and won political asylum in Czechoslovakia and announced his plans to go to the Communist country in a letter read in the House of Commons Friday by Laborite Wedgwood Benn.

The Boston scientist said he did not want to return to the United States on the ground that he would be persecuted and "victimized" because he had been a member of the Communist party while a student at Yale.

Cort denied the draft-dodging allegation.

Released on Bond

Paul Whitehouse, held in the county jail for approximately three months awaiting trial on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon following his plea of innocence, yesterday was released under $2,000 bond. Whitehouse is charged with hurling a lighted lamp at his wife, Clarabelle, his wife making the accusation. She was severely burned.

Say Red Pilots Stuck Heads Into Hornets' Nest

Communists Attacked Three, Failed to See 10 Other Planes

MANILA, P. I. (U-P)—The two Communist fliers who attacked U. S. Navy search planes off Palawan Island this week stuck their heads into a "hornets' nest," the victors of the air battle said today.

The Red airmen struck at three AD torpedo bombers, apparently not noticing 10 other American planes in the air nearby. Two or three minutes later, the only trace left of the Communist LAT fighters was a few ripples on the surface of the South China Sea.

A Red gunboat also fired on the American planes, but they did not return its fire.

Lt. Roy M. Tatham, 32, Andrews, N. C., and Ens. Richard R. Crooks, 25, Los Angeles, downed the first of the attacking planes with the 20 mm cannon of their ADs.

Tell Story at Conference

Lt. Comdr. Edgar N. Salsig, Philo, Calif., in an F4U fighter, and six other AD pilots—Lt. Comdrs. William H. Alexander, Jamestown, R. I., and Paul J. Wahlstrom, Milton, Mass.; Lts. (jg) John L. Damian, Encino, Calif.; Richard S. Ribble, Mountain Lakes, N. J.; and John M. Rochford, Phoenix, Ariz.; and Ens. John J. Zardua, Riverdale, Md.—all put bullets in the second Red plane.

The American airmen told their story at a press conference aboard the carrier USS Hornet, flagship of Vice Adm. W. K. Phillips. The Hornet and a sister ship, the Philippine Sea, arrived here today.

Phillips said the shooting started at 10 a. m. Monday, when the Reds made "an almost level firing run" on three ADs led by Comdr. George C. Duncan, Tacoma, Wash.

Three Runs By Reds
Duncan's ADs were flying at an altitude of 5,000 feet. Eight other torpedo bombers were in the air, at altitudes from 500 to 3,000 feet, and two F4Us were flying "top cover" at 10,000 feet.

"The two Communist planes finished their run head-on, shooting over all the Skyriders (ADs), due to Commander Duncan's leading his group into a shallow dive," the admiral said.

"The Reds were flying at about 6,000 feet," Duncan said. "They turned into us to make a regular run. We evaded them. They apparently didn't see the others above or below us, or they didn't have any sense at all. They made three runs, but they couldn't fire on one run."

"Then Tatham and Crooks got the leader of the two. After the first plane went down, the second Red plane got into a hornets' nest with eight Skyriders shooting at him. Salsig, in his Corsair, also hit him."

"He headed for the beach, but went diving into the water."

Illinois to Draft 1,400 in October

CHICAGO (U-P)—Ed Felt, Illinois Director of Selective Service, said today the Illinois quota of the national draft call of 23,000 for October would be "around 1,400."

Felt said Illinois' share of the national call would be "just about the same as it has been for the past several months."

In the September call the Illinois share was 1,309 but Felt said that number was "a little low and the October number would be right around 1,400."

Mid August Report Is Required In AC Program

All farmers currently participating in the 1954 Agricultural Conservation program must comply with an Aug. 15 (actually 16th) deadline reporting date if they wish to receive cost-sharing assistance for limestone, terraces, and other completed soil conservation projects, according to Raymond Alvey, chairman of the Saline county ASC committee.

Under this year's program, farmers were given until Aug. 15 to carry out ACP soil conservation work approved prior to this date.
Any farmer who has already completed a 1954 ACP practice approved for his farm must turn in a report by the deadline date in order to receive credit and be eligible for payment. This report may be filed by calling at the county ASC office in person, or by completing,
signing and returning form ACP-245, which has previously been sent to all cooperators. Written evidence such as tickets showing purchase of limestone or invoices covering earth-moving costs, should accompany the report.

Farmers who haven't carried out projects which have been approved for their farms and are still interested in doing the job, should request an extension of time. These requests must be in writing and must also be filed before the Aug.
15 deadline date. This August cutoff date, said Mr. Alvey, is a new program feature, and one that might easily be overlooked. Every cooperator should make certain that he has or will submit the required report. Unless this is done previously approved practices will be cancelled and he may lose a payment which otherwise would be earned.

Sudan Grass, Red Clover, Birdsfoot Trefoil, Alfalfa Crops Tested at SIU

CARBONDALE, Ill. — Sudan
grass, red clover, birdsfoot trefoil,
and alfalfa comprise forage crops
included in Southern Illinois university's first extensive forage variety trials this year. Grain type soybeans also are being tested. E.
F. Sullivan, an agronomist in the SIU Agriculture department, is conducting the tests.

The first three forages are being tested in cooperation with the University of Illinois College of Agriculture. Alfalfa trials are an SIU project only. The soybean program is being carried on in cooperation with the United States Department of Agriculture Regional Soybean Laboratories, Urbana, and is one of many similar stations
in the North Central area.

Twelve varieties of sudan grass
are in the SIU plots. This forage crop is gaining area popularity for silage and pasture, but there has been little or no testing of variety adaptability in Illinois, Sullivan said. First crop growth showed wide variation in height of plants among varieties, but total pounds of dry matter per acre were not so widely separated.

Kenland Recommended

Growth is rapid, indicating fine forage possibilities for summer use in pasturing livestock or making silage. Recovery from the first cutting and the amount of forage produced in succeeding cuttings may widen the differences between varieties, he pointed out.

Of 15 varieties of medium red clover included in the SIU trials, Kenland (certified) is the most widely grown and is recommended for southern Illinois, Sullivan said.
It is slightly resistant to root rot and quite resistant to southern anthracnose disease. Most other varieties are adapted to other parts of the nation and are being tested
at SIU to note possible adaptability to area conditions.

Birdsfoot trefoil trials contain 12 varieties and strains, including both broadleaf and narrowleaf types. Some are pasture and others hay varieties.

Only the pasture varieties need consideration in the area, and these only under special conditions, Sullivan says. Birdsfoot trefoil is one of the slowest legumes to become established, and the seed is expensive. Usually two years are required to start a pasture. Once established, however, it has a better perennial habit than most legumes and is recommended for long term pastures or for rough areas not accessible to mowing machines.

Empire, a New York variety, is recommended for pasture use. Such faster growing kinds as Viking Lotus or Cascade, which have European backgrounds, are hay type plants.

14 Varieties of Soybeans

Among 10 hardy varieties of alfalfa in the SIU trials Buffalo is the recommended kind for area use.
Ranger is acceptable. The first is resistant and the second partly resistant to bacterial wilt which is common in the area.

The soybean plots contain 14 varieties thought suitable for southern Illinois and similar areas. Included are the commercial varieties, Chief, Clark, Perry, and Wabash. The rest are experimental kinds designated only by numbers.
Testing observations include yields,
maturity time, lodging tendency,
plant height, seed size and quality,
chemical composition, and shattering characteristics.

Sullivan also is conducting a series of trials on methods of establishing forage crops—using manure or chopped straw mulches, comparison versus no companion crops,
drilling versus broadcasting seed,
and companion crop spacing.

You can have fresh sweet corn from your garden for a longer time
this summer either by planting several varieties with different maturity dates or by planting the same variety at several different times during the planting season.

Icebergs have been seen in Great Salt Lake.

SIU Country Column

By Albert Meyer

Those farmers who claim they see no visible response to a fertilizer application really should feel fortunate. Generally this indicates that the soil has sufficient plant food for the crop produced.

If, however, there is a visible response to fertilizer it is a sign that the farmer has been taking a loss in potentially increased crop yields during years past—lost bushels of grain or tons of forage that he should have had.

Applying 200 pounds per acre of 0-20-20 fertilizer every year to legume-grass meadowland is one step toward successful meadow management. The analysis figures mean, of course, that in 100 pounds of this kind of fertilizer there is no nitrogen but there are 20 pounds
each of phosphorus and potash.

To produce high yields, corn plants must be adequately supplied with nitrogen. This may be furnished three ways: by plowing down legumes, by using commercial nitrogen, or by plowing under crop residues and manures.

The amount of nitrogen added
in a starter fertilizer is inadequate to supply the requirements of the corn plants. Most additional commercial nitrogen either must be plowed down or side dressed. The corn should be side dressed when the plants are about knee high.

Nitrogen deficiency begins to show up prominently as the corn increases in height.

Increased spring farrowings are expected to produce a greater than normal seasonal decline in hog prices this fall. However, the hog prices probably will remain considerably above normal—at least through mid-1955. The number of farrowings this fall and next spring will be influenced substantially by the size of this year's corn crop and the amount of non-supported corn produced.

Besides harming the trees, grazing the farm woodland provides little more than shade and too much exercise for the cows. Shade, of course, is necessary for cattle during the heat of the summer, but it may be furnished by a small clump of trees in the pasture or a fenced-off corner of the woodland.
Protect the rest of the woodland from grazing and give the herd a smaller acreage of improved pasture or meadow for grazing. It is more profitable.

To point out the poor pasturing
value of woodland an experiment in Kentucky shows that it required 25 acres of woodland pasture just to keep one cow producing milk at the rate of 5,000 pounds annually for 180 days. In an Indiana study it took nearly 18 acres of such pasture just to maintain the body weight of a 700-pound steer.

This is a vital period in the life of the pullets which furnish the fall and winter laying flock. It is important to remember that the size of the winter egg income will depend upon these pullets. Good care means keeping feed, a clean range, and plenty of fresh water available all the time. This also is the time to cull out the pullets which are small and slow-maturing.
By removing and marketing them
now rather than later, the feed bill will be reduced.

Farm to Live— Live to Farm

"Farm to Live—Live to Farm"
has been emphasized as the key to safer farm life during the eleventh observance of National Farm Safety Week July 25-31.

With more than 14,000 rural people in the United States killed in farm accidents last year, there's need for action on the safety front, says University of Illinois farm safety specialist Gordon McCleary.
Livestock and machinery—the backbone of the farmer's business—teamed up with falls to cause about half of all farm accidents in 1953.

Although each machine has its own particular danger points, Mc-Cleary says, most accidents happen
when you hurry or take chances.
Many times, too, losing your temper can mean losing time—or a limb—because of an injury.

Many livestock accidents, Mc-Cleary says, occur when you trust animals a little too far. Bulls—which killed five Illinois farmers
last year—should never be trusted no matter how tame they may seem. And you'll help to avoid serious injuries from horses and cattle if you let them know you're around—and then stay away from the "kicking end" as much as possible.

Probably the most tragic farm accidents, says McCleary, are those involving children. Parents must take most of the responsibility for their children's safety—and they should also set them a good example.

ATOMIC CRISSCROSS LEAP

The sensational leap pictured here is the breath-taking climax to a 28 events Thrill Show presented by Jack Kochman's World Champion Hell Drivers who will appear at the Saline County Fair Monday, Aug. 2. Catapulting a speeding open car up a rampway and into space as if shot from a gun, this driver sail the auto high over another car passing directly underneath and lands upon a receiving ramp approximately 120 feet away. By far the most dangerous of Thrill Show Events, this one event has claimed the lives of eight daredevils in the past. Geo. Patton who makes this leap is the only driver using an open convertible car for the crisscross leap.

Supreme Worthy High Priestess Juanita Mas of Kansas City, Mo., paid an official visit Thursday evening to the Egyptian Shrine No. 56, Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, in Harrisburg.

A banquet was held at 6:30 p. m. at the Masonic temple. The tables were placed to form a cross, and favors of colorful paper dolls, dressed in the colors of the supreme worthy high priestess, bitter sweet, purple and gold, were placed at each plate. Dainty nut cups were made in the shape of talisman roses which is her flower. The table was centered with a bouquet of various yellow flowers and around the bouquet were placed paper dolls. The decorations were made by Mrs. C. Lendall Rockwell and Mrs. Don Endicott.

A lovely basket of gladioli, daisies and asters was presented to the Shrine by Soj. Clara Naugle, florist from Eldorado, for the occasion. A refreshment of punch was served following the meal. Mrs. Dick Martin from Eldorado was in charge of the refreshment committee.

Among the guests were Vivian M. Parrish, past supreme high priestess, from Murphysboro, and supreme worthy herald, Hilda Hibbler from St. Louis, Mo. Guests from five states were present.

Woman Dragged Under Water By Motorboat

FOX LAKE, Ill. (UP) — Mrs. Dorothy Moriarity, 39, was in serious condition today after she was dragged under water for about 4,000 feet behind a motorboat.

The boat's operator, Miss Joyce Davlin, a 31-year-old heiress, told Coast Guardsmen Friday she was towing three waterskiers, one of them Mrs. Moriarity, around Mineola Bay on this lake.

She said the other two dropped off after a circuit of the bay. She then made another tour of the bay and looked around to see if Mrs. Moriarity was ready to get off. She did not see her, she said, so she cruised in search of her, and failing to find her, called for help.

As a Coast Guard craft was putting out, Miss Davlin saw Mrs. Moriarity bobbing on the surface behind the boat. She raised her into the boat and took her to a pier where a Coast Guardsman administered artificial respiration before she was taken to St. Therese Hospital in Waukegan, Ill.

Coast Guardsman John Shay said Mrs. Moriarity had slipped off her skis and became entangled in one of the dangling ropes used by one of the other water-skiers. She had been dragged all around the bay in water up to 20 feet in depth, he said.

Mrs. Davlin is free on bond on a charge of setting fire to the lake-side Mineola Hotel last October. She said she set the fire because the operator was engaged in a legal squabble with her mother over the hotel's ownership.

Eisenhower Praises Achievements of Information Agency

WASHINGTON (UP) — President Eisenhower has congratulated members of the world wide United States Information Agency on their "substantial achievements" during the agency's first year of operations.

The agency operates Voice of America radio broadcasts, the overseas libraries, motion pictures and press and publication services.

These functions were taken out of the State Department a year ago and placed under the independent agency. The agency will be one year old Sunday, but its anniversary was celebrated today.

Flights Halted By Strike of Airlines Pilots

Dispute Caused By Non-Stop, Coast-To-Coast Schedules

By United Press
Air centers across the nation posted flight cancellations today as American Airlines pilots went on strike in a dispute over flying schedules.

The pilots, members of the 1,200-strong Air Line Pilots Association, left their posts as the 11:59 p. m. deadline appeared in the country's time zones.

The strike became effective first in New York City where airline officials halted numerous scheduled flights and refused to accept air freight shipments.

At Philadelphia 16 regular flights were cancelled. At Chicago, the nation's flying hub, American Airlines posted cancellation notices on 170 flights. At Dallas 47 flights were called off.

At Los Angeles where 27 scheduled flights were cancelled, reservations clerks were reported working overtime to accommodate stranded passengers by routing them to other air lines or rail travel.

No incidents reported.
The strike began without incident and no picketing was reported.

American Airlines planes were still taking to the air from many airports, but these flights were only to return the crews to their home base.

The ALPA pilots strike became effective despite threat by the company to bring suit against the union.

The dispute, postponed once, arose from the inauguration by a number of airlines of non-stop, coast-to-coast flights, which may require more than eight hours.

The ALPA contends such flights violate considerations of safety and a 24-year old rule limiting a pilot's flying time to eight hours a day. The union has threatened to extend its strike to other coast-to-coast lines.

CAR Waived Rule
The Civil Aeronautics Board granted special waivers two months ago to American Airlines and Trans-World Airlines to schedule crews up to 10 hours continuous flying time on transcontinental non-stop trips.

This waiver, upheld by the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals in New York, touched off the dispute.

Clarence B. Sayen, president of the ALPA, has demanded that three daily west-bound flights from New York be given relief crews before the plane reaches the West Coast.

Estimate $800
Yearly Expense for Students at SIU

CARBONDALE, Ill. — There still remains at least one spot in the United States where a person can live comfortably on $1,000 a year and save $200 in the bargain.

According to figures issued this week by Southern Illinois University, an SIU student can live in a modern, well equipped dormitory; get three good meals a day; enjoy a complete social life; be free of hospitalization expense worries; and receive a first-rate education for the sum total of $800.

SIU budget authorities break the bill down this way: tuition and fees including book rental, hospitalization, athletic events, school yearbook and newspaper, and entertainment—$76; and miscellaneous including school supplies, shows, dates, snacks and so forth—$144. The grand total—$290.

There's just one catch. All dormitory reservation have been filled for weeks, but costs are about the same for rooms in private homes and meals in the University cafeteria.

Heavy Rains Hit Sections; Fire Hazard in California

By United Press
Thunderstorms, cloudbursts and a small tornado brought drenching rains to scattered parts of the country today while a heat wave spread westward to California.

The heaviest rainfall was dumped on southeastern Texas and in Arizona where tons of water sent small rivers over their banks.

High winds, blowing dust and a light rain struck Omaha, Neb., killing one person, and small tornadoes ripped through rural areas near York and Ames, Neb. The twisters damaged farm buildings but no casualties were reported.

At Canon City, Colo., tons of rock and mud, drenched by a mountain storm, rolled hundreds of feet into a gorge, injuring two youths and virtually covering a Rio Grande Western freight train.

In California the temperature soared to new highs, hitting 95 degrees at Los Angeles, a record for the date.

The hot and dry weather was at the "critical fire hazard" stage for California forests as firefighters battled eight fires and patrolled seven others from the southern part of the state to the Oregon border.

At Globe, Ariz., Red Cross officials asked the federal government to declare a national emergency there to help 50 families stricken in a drenching cloudburst that caused an estimated two million dollars' damage.

The U. S. Weather Bureau said the temperatures for the next 30 days will average above normal over the sun-baked western third of the nation and in the Middle and North Atlantic States.

Mendes-France, Join Fly to Tunisia With 'New Deal'

TUNIS, Tunisia (U) — French Premier Pierre Mendes-France and Marshal Alphonse Juin flew to this North African protectorate today with a "new deal" designed to stamp out terrorism.

Mendes-France, Juin and the minister for Tunisian and Moroccan affairs, Christian Fouchet, stepped out of the premier's military plane less than 12 hours after he had won government approval of his reforms.

The young premier again left Paris breathless with surprise at his dramatic initiative.

Mendes-France is expected to broadcast a message to both French and Tunisians tonight from the protectorate's capital.

Selection of Juin, France's only living marshal, to accompany him showed that Mendes-France intended to give full prestige of France's military tradition to this mission.

Jun, France's highest ranking soldier, was stripped of government positions for criticizing the proposed European army. His presence aboard the premier's plane appeared to be a sign that he had returned to favor after being disgraced publicly by the previous government of Premier Joseph Laniel.

Foreign Aid Bill Set Aside by Senate Debate

WASHINGTON (U) — The Senate set aside the administration's foreign aid bill today to await the outcome of the debate raging over Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy.

Republican leaders had hoped for speedy approval of the $3,100,000,000 aid authorization Friday before Sen. Ralph E. Flanders (R-Vt.) formally called up his controversial motion to censure McCarthy.

Flanders waited impatiently while senators debated the aid bill and acted on several amendments. Then as the Senate moved into an evening session, he called up his resolution and sidetracked the aid bill, presumably until some time next week.

The foreign aid bill would provide another year of military, economic and technical aid to free nations. The measure also strongly opposes Red China's admission to the United Nations.

The House already has passed a $3,338,000,000 authorization bill and the follow-up appropriation to provide the funds.

Caution Pilot Against Search

WASHINGTON (U) — American and British officials have cautioned an American pilot against flying to Red-held Hainan Island to search for a possible survivor of the British airliner shot down by Chinese Communist planes.

A State Department spokesman said the pilot, Perry B. Cutbush of Pittsburgh, Kan., told authorities in Hong Kong he was willing to make the flight in an effort to find Leonard Lee Parish, a friend who was aboard the ill-fated airliner.

He cited a British pilot's report that a rescue boat was seen in the area after the disaster a week ago.

The State Department, however, said there is "little likelihood" that Parish and his two sons survived when the plane crashed into the South China Sea, near Hainan.

Cutbush was "not encouraged to undertake such a mission," the department said, because of the risks involved.

The State Department, meantime, was building a case for a new protest to the Chinese Communists over the loss of the three Americans, and the subsequent Communist air attacks on two American search planes. The two Red planes were shot down by their intended victims however.

Only Two of Quads Survive

PITTSBURGH (U) — Two surviving girls in a set of quadruplets born to Mrs. Ruth Hurd, 25, Negro, living tenaciously to life today in special high-oxygen, high-humidity incubators.

The only boy in the quads died Friday about seven and a half hours, after he was born. He was followed in death by a girl more than four hours later.

Dr. Hilda Kroeger, Magee Hospital administrator, said the four babies each weighed between one and a half and two and a half pounds at birth.

"All together they added up to the weight of one good sized baby," she said.

The quads, born eight weeks early, were placed into the incubators immediately after delivery.

House Committee Recommends Vote of Gratitude to MacArthur

WASHINGTON (U) — The House Armed Services committee has recommended a congressional vote of gratitude to Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

The committee approved a resolution introduced by Rep. L. Mendel Rivers (D-S.C.) commending the 74-year-old warrior for his "unsurpassed service to his nation."

Speaker Joseph W. Martin Jr. said it will be taken up by the House next week. He said no opposition is expected.

Dodge Workers to Vote on New Strike

DETROIT (U) — A new strike against Chrysler Corp. was threatened today when Dodge Local No. 3, whose walkout idled 45,000 workers a week ago, called its members to a meeting to vote on a new strike.

Joseph Cheal, president of the local, said members would ballot this afternoon on the proposal. He said it would be late tonight before results are known.

There are about 10,000 Dodge workers in the local. But the local includes 400 drivers of trucks who haul parts between various Chrysler Corp. plants in the Detroit area. When they joined last week's walkout, a parts shortage idled 45,000 of the 66,000 Chrysler workers in the Detroit area.

The company is due to start shutting down its plants Aug. 9 for undermanned periods while getting set up for 1955 models.

Merchants Play Mt. Carmel Aces Here on Sunday

The Harrisburg Merchants will be seeking their fifth straight win Sunday afternoon when they meet the Mt. Carmel Aces at the town park diamond. The local boys have defeated Johnston City, Thebes, Paducah Giants and Cambria in their latest winning streak and now have a record of 11 wins and seven losses.

Billy McNew, a 19-year-old right-handed product of the Kiwanis league, will be the Merchants' choice for mound duty with Dick Romonosky behind the plate. Gene Trammell, who defeated Cambria last Sunday, will be ready for relief chores.

The Mt. Carmel team is built around a group of younger players, and despite a late start in the season, has built up a good record. The team was highly recommended by "Red" Durfee, a former merchant star who now plays with Mt. Carmel.

Dick Odie, the Merchants' star shortstop for many years and rated by Don Liddle as "the best shortstop outside of organized baseball," is seeing only reserve duty due to his doctor's advice. Freddie Williams, who moves over to short from second, has been doing a good job in filling Dick's place. Tom Dunbar, Frank Logsdon and Harold Gulley will help Williams fill out the infield, while the outfield will be chosen from Spurlock, Elms, Bob Williams, Jim Parton and Bynum.

Spectacular Catch by Doby Aids Indians to 8-3 Victory; Giants Win as Dodgers Lose

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Writer

Larry Doby's mitt is an ordinary fielder's model priced at $14.50 in leading sporting goods shops but he used it for the incredible kind of catch Friday night that could enrich him and each of his Cleveland teammates by $6,000.

Two long-time veterans of the diamond—ex-pitching great Dizzy Dean and Indian Manager Al Lopez—called Doby's spectacular catch the greatest they had ever seen.

"I've seen hundreds of great ones," said Dean, who was at the game "but Doby's was the best."

Lopez, elated over the catch that figured in an 8-3 victory over Washington and helped the Indians increase their American league lead to 2 1/2 games, said in genuine amazement:

"There aren't enough words in the language to describe that Doby catch."

Indians Led 5-3

The Indians had a 5-3 lead in the third inning when Tom Umphlett drove one of Art Houtteman's pitches to the deepest part of left center field with Jim Busby on base. It looked for all the world like a homer that would tie the score. But Doby leaped above the five-foot fence at Municipal Stadium, bounced off the awning over the bullpen bench, and back on the field with the ball clutched in his glove.

He was shaken up but remained in the game. So dazzling was the catch that the crowd of 17,504 fans kept applauding him each time he went up to the plate after that. Doby responded by smashing his 21st homer in the sixth to help Houtteman to his 10th triumph. Jim Hegan drove in four runs with a homer and a double.

Yanks Lose to Orioles

The Yankees fell a game off the pace by bowing to Don Larsen of Baltimore, 10-0. Larsen scattered seven hits in registering his third win of the year. He has lost 13 games. Bob Kennedy drove in six runs with a grand-slam homer and two singles as Allie Reynolds' 10-game winning streak came to an abrupt end.

Bob Keegan got his 13th victory by driving in two White Sox runs himself with a double and a sacrifice fly in a 4-2 decision over the Athletics. By beating Arnold Portocarrero, the White Sox climbed to within 4 1/2 games of the Yankees.

Neal Garver, pitching with only two days' rest, hurled a four-hitter to pace the Tigers to a 5-0 decision over the Red Sox. Al Kaline blasted a three-run homer off Tom Hurd, who relieved losing pitcher Willard Nixon in the eighth.

Giants Three Ahead

Leo Durocher's Giants went three games in front in the National league with a 6-1 conquest of Cincinnati while Milwaukee beat Brooklyn, 9-3, for its eighth straight victory.

Ruben Gomez limited the Reds to five hits and hit one of four Giant homers off Fred Baczewski. Wes Westrum, Don Mueller and

To Present Hancock with Mid-Season Trophy at Racing Program Tonight

Eddie Hancock, leading driver at the Saline County Speedway, will be presented the mid-season trophy during tonight's program of stock car racing at the local track.

Hancock, who was running neck-and-neck with Leonard Grisham before last week's racing, came up with a sufficient number of victories to put him on top of the long list of drivers who have been racing at the local fairgrounds speedway this season.

A full program is scheduled for this evening, the first racing on the second half of the season and all drivers will be out to get points and improve their standings.

Time trials are listed for 7:30 and racing a half hour later.

Turner's, Texacos, Ronnie's and James Bros. Teams Win Kiwanis League Games

Turner's Cafe nine smashed out a 30-2 victory over the Sahara Coals in a game played Friday in the Kiwanis league. Other games saw the Texacos beat the Deuces, 9-2; Ronnie's beat the Karnes Hardware team, 12-8, and James Bros. club out a 29-3 win over the NYC nine.

Turner's clubbed out 12 hits with Biggs leading the hitting with three homers. Ramsey allowed the Sahara Coals four hits in the 30-2 victory. Simpson suffered the loss.

Dowdy of the Texacos turned in one of the finest pitching performances of the season as he allowed the Deuces only one hit and two runs and struck out 19 batters. He also banded out three hits as the Chiefs won, 9-2.

King was the winning pitcher for Ronnie's and Hefner the loser for Karnes.

Goins turned in a brilliant pitching performance also for the James Bros. in allowing one hit and three runs in the 29-3 win over NYC. Davis was the loser.

KIWANIS LEAGUE SIDELIGHTS
By Don Williams

The Jaycees, after having a mediocre first half, have swept through the National League and are leading by three full games this half. Glendall Ewell has taken over the manager's post and the team has prospered. The Jaycees have a good three-man pitching staff with Jones, Edwards, and Dick Weatherly, who has returned to the league after a long vacation.

Ronnie's Studio has really run over competition this year. The team won the first half of play in the III league and is firmly entrenched in first place the second half. So what did they do when competition was lacking? They beat Walker's Cleaners, the leading team in the American league in an exhibition game. They've yet to lose a game.

Jerry Dowdy has been one surprise of the year. His fast ball has struck out every opposing player.

AKRON, O. (U.P.)—Earl Sharrard, Imlay City, Mich., owner-trainer at nearby Ascot Park race track has every reason to be disgusted.

To start with, someone claimed his six-year-old gelding, Tom Yorum, after a race.

Then, Sharrard bought two $50 tickets for one race on No. 6. The mutual clerk misunderstood him and gave him two $50 tickets on No. 5. Shortly after he left the window, Sherrard noticed the error and rushed back. After a conference, the tickets were exchanged.

As it turned out, the favorite, No. 6 lost and No. 5 an outsider, won, paying $80.00 for $2. Sherrard had corrected himself out of $4,030.

SHOULD BOBBY HATE COPS?

Bobby had always wanted to be a policeman. But recently he has gotten acquainted with an older boy who hates cops. This older boy belongs to a gang. He has been "in trouble" several times. Despite the fact he comes from a respectable family, he is a juvenile delinquent.

The older boy is poisoning Bobby's mind. He is teaching Bobby to look at life through the eyes of a juvenile delinquent. The gang starts early to "train" new recruits!

Is there any antidote in Bobby's life to counteract the poison to which he is exposed? There can be.

It's not too late for Bobby's family to realize his need for religious training. They can begin next Sunday to be a church-going family. They can bring him to church school, provide a Christian atmosphere in his home, encourage him in his spiritual and moral development.

God cares about Bobby's future. Our community cares. Our churches all care. DO BOBBY'S PARENTS CARE?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) children's sake; (2) for the sake of his community and nation; (3) for the sake of the Church itself; (4) which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

'Christian Worship And Fellowship'

Acts 2:46-47; Colossians 3:12-17; Hebrews 10:23-35

GOLDEN TEXT: "Let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works; not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together." (Hebrews 10:24-25)

INTRODUCTION: The people in a church may be rightfully called a "church family." A close relationship should exist between members of the church family. Modern society is missing much because of the speed under which we live. In days gone by people took more time for fellowship. The local church was the center of this fellowship, and members looked forward to each "meeting-day" as a day of Christian worship and fellowship.

Formality is too much the order of the day in some modern worship. Worship of God rests not in formality, but rather in communion with Him.

I HOME AND CHURCH WORSHIP (Acts 2:46-47)
There was wonderful spiritual fellowship among those early Christians. They enjoyed "breaking bread" one with another in their homes. They praised the Lord to gether both at home and in the temple. How different from some church families of this modern day where there is envy, back-biting and discord. (Not all modern church families are like this.) Those early Christians loved the Lord and each other.

They had "favor with the people." This made it possible for them to witness to the people of the community. A church family that does not have close Christian fellowship cannot have much influence upon the community for Christ.

They "continued steadfastly in the temple." This means that they were regular in church attendance. We need that today! With such fellowship there were "added day by day of those that were saved." Any church that is not having saved people added regularly perhaps

II THE WAY TO FELLOWSHIP

The real Christian is tender-hearted, meek, loving, forgiving and long-suffering. These qualities are the mark of the true follower of Christ. Christ gives inward peace (v. 15) to all who practice these qualities.

Christianity is active. It is more than a way of life; it is life! It is to be taken into the home, the place of business, on the farm and wherever the Christian walks. The Christian "returns good for evil" at all times. There is a spirit of brotherly love among Christians wherever and whenever they meet.

III "ABIDING RICHLY IN CHRIST" (Col. 3:16-17)

The Christian has Christ dwelling in his heart. The constant, conscious presence of Christ makes life worth while under any and all circumstances. He is the "living Word dwelling richly within" the Christian. We wonder sometimes how many church members have this kind of spiritual experience. Do you?

IV FAITHFUL FELLOWSHIP (Heb. 10:23-25)

What a wonderful thing it is to have faith in Christ and to know one is saved not only from hell, but also, from the power of sin! Faith in Him gives us strength. Love is active and will provoke us "unto love and good works." (v. 24)

Notice the words, "the day is drawing nigh." This refers to the hope of all Christians for the second coming of Christ. He is coming to earth again. It may be soon. What a day of gladness for all Christians! Are you ready for that day?

CONCLUSION: Christian people should be the happiest people in all the world. Real fellowship exists in the church family that is following Christ. That kind of Christian family is winning others to Christ. We all look for the day when Christ shall return for His own.
